General Description

Borough of Manhattan Community College (BMCC) is now the largest college in the City University of New York system, with more than 20,000 students, and is the first community college in Manhattan. BMCC's mission: BMCC is a diverse teaching and learning community committed to advancing equity and the intellectual and personal growth of students. Working to strengthen a culture of care inside and outside the classroom, we share a passion for learning with students from around the world. We strive to increase degree completion, successful transfer, career achievement and service and leadership within our community, New York City, and beyond.

The Learning Resource Center (LRC) provides academic support services to meet student learning needs while strengthening their academic skills. These services are designed to afford them the opportunity to complete their coursework successfully and increase the likelihood that they will be retained, persist and graduate. Reporting to the Academic Resource Center Director or his/her designee, the successful candidate will provide support and assistance to Career and Technical Education (CTE) Peer-Assisted Learning (PAL) leaders and tutors, students, faculty and staff. The LRC is recruiting to fill the CTE Academic Support Specialist position as part of the college's Strengthening Career and Technical Education for the 21st Century Act (formerly known as the Perkins Grant).
