General Description

The Manhattan EOC YouthBuild Project provides young people the opportunity to gain construction industry credentials while earning their High School Equivalency diploma.

The Manhattan EOC seeks up to 2 tutors in (1) Math & Science and (2) Reasoning through Language Arts (Reading/Writing) and Social Studies for the New York State High School Equivalency Exam, the GED®, in the afternoon and/or early evening hours (generally speaking between 12pm and 5pm Monday - Thursday). This is a fully in-person position.

Tutors will:

- Be knowledgeable of HSE Attainment in New York State including the approved exam by the New York State Education Department (NYSED)
- Have subject matter expertise in the appropriate subject area
- Have experience tutoring young adults or adult learners seeking their high school equivalency diploma
- Be attentive to individual student needs while able to work individually or in small groups
- Conduct one-on-one and/or small-group tutorials in-person
- Assess student needs
- Employ curriculum materials in response to student needs, and create handouts or share electronic resources, prompts, and assignments as needed
- Adapt to changing student needs, requests, opportunities, and challenges
- Motivate students to take advantage of tutoring services and other academic supports
- Keeps records, take attendance, enter attendance into a data system, distribute forms, and collect forms
- Maintain confidentiality of student records, as appropriate
- Other duties as assigned

This tutoring position is located at the Manhattan Educational Opportunity Center, at 163 West 125th Street, New York, NY. While this is a fully in-person position, it may require some remote hours on a weekly basis. This is a grant funded position with support from the NYS Department of Labor. Continued employment in this position is contingent upon ongoing funding. This position provides tutoring at the Manhattan EOC including, but not limited to the duties listed above.
