General Description

ORGANIZATIONAL BACKGROUND

CivWorld is a leading nongovernmental program in the promotion of interdependence across national boundaries, led by acclaimed political theorist, Dr. Benjamin R. Barber. CivWorld is currently housed within the Center on Philanthropy and Civil Society at The Graduate Center of the City University of New York (at 34th Street and 5th Ave), where Dr. Barber is a Senior Research Scholar, with an international, dynamic, and growing team interfacing with mayors, heads of state, and leading media outlets around the world.

The CivWorld team is currently working to launch a Global Parliament of Mayors (GPM), drawing upon Dr. Barber's recent book, If Mayors Ruled the World, and the unique status of cities as a nexus of both local democracy and global exchange. This project requires complex partnership management, communications with local governments around the world and the delivery of the GPM itself, in 2016. CivWorld is growing rapidly to fulfill its demanding work of building this innovative new governance institution.

POSITION DESCRIPTION

The Executive Assistant will serve under the President and Founder of CivWorld, Dr. Barber, and will also report to CivWorld's NY based Program Coordinator and the UK based GPM Executive Director. This position includes work directly related to the development and delivery of the inaugural GPM. Our relationship with the Center on Philanthropy and Civil Society staff includes interaction on administration and finance. This position requires a self-starter who can multi task on a wide variety of projects.

This position is full-time, offers benefits and requires some schedule flexibility with regards to special events. The successful candidate must be available to start no later than mid-August, possibly sooner, to allow for training and handover.

Prior to an interview, you will be expected to be familiar with our work; please review benjaminbarber.org and globalparliamentofmayors.org
