General Description

The mission of The Bronx Institute at Lehman College is to enhance educational opportunity by promoting academic excellence for K-20 students. The vision is to transform the lives of Bronx and other New York City area youth by improving their educational outcomes. Our efforts are focused on closing the achievement gap by increasing high school graduation with college readiness and other academic services to maximize each student's potential.

The Bronx Institute GEAR UP Program is a funded initiative designed to foster academic success. The Institute works collaboratively with Bronx schools, community based organizations, colleges, and other service providers in the planning and delivery of services to (1) foster academic achievement, (2) improve student performance (3) ensure successful high school graduation and admission to college. All program activities target three integral constituencies essential to student success: parents, teachers, and students.

The Communications Coordinator will have primary responsibility for implementing a communications strategy by developing materials and documents that support that strategy. Working under the supervision of Bronx Institute Directors the Communications Coordinator will be responsible for:

- Development of largely student written magazines reaching out to parents and students
