General Description

MISSION

Children need to spend their most critical years with dedicated, educated, trained, and well-compensated individuals in order to thrive. The New York Early Childhood Professional Development Institute leads the work to establish and implement an early childhood workforce system to ensure funding, standards and competencies, career development resources, qualifications and credentials, professional development (training and strengths-based coaching), and program quality assurance and improvement for individuals who work with young children throughout New York. Housed at the City University of New York, the Institute is a fast-paced, dynamic public/private partnership that is committed to the early childhood workforce across New York State.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

New York Works for Children (NYWFC), is New York State's integrated professional development system for the early childhood and school age workforce. With funding and support from multiple city and state agencies, NYWFC is committed to building the infrastructure so that everyone who works with young children and families has access to high quality education and professional development experiences. NYWFC is also the home of The Aspire Registry: New York's Registry for Early Childhood Professionals. The workforce registry is a web-based system that helps early childhood providers track their ongoing professional development, education, and experience, and helps them find professional development.

The Outreach and Communication Associate will support the development and implementation of NYWFC and The Aspire Registry's communications and outreach strategy to maximize the project's impact and reach. The Outreach and Communications Associate will report directly to the Communications and Design Manager, and will work closely with other Institute staff.
